Commercial Arbitration

Most commercial arbitration in the U.S. is through the American Arbitration Association, or the Judicial Arbitration & Mediation Services. In general, they do not publish their awards. However, there are resources available which publish awards issued by international bodies. Many of these are available online at <http://www.KluwerArbitration.com>, including:

The ICCA (International Council for Commercial Arbitration) Yearbook Commercial Arbitration provides commentary on new developments and substantive issues in the field, rules of arbitral bodies, as well as court decisions and arbitral awards.
