Practical Professionalism	FL-ETHS-302	1	PRACTICAL PROFESSIONALISM: The course would explore both the aspirational and practical aspects of professionalism in law practice. In contrast to professional responsibility, which establishes ethical norms below which an attorney may not go without being disciplined, professionalism in law practice seeks to raise the level of ethics and civility that the practicing attorney demonstrates to other lawyers, clients, parties, and the community at large. Prerequisites: None	Corrigan	August 9-12; M-TH 6:00pm-9:00pm with a 5 minute break	August 13, Friday, 6-7pm	555
Public Speaking for Lawyers	FL-DSRL-330N	2	PUBLIC SPEAKING FOR LAWYERS: This course provides students the opportunity to develop and hone their public speaking skills, through instruction and intensive practice in a supportive environment. Topics to be addressed regarding this crucial lawyer skill include: how to create excellent, dynamic presentations; conquering fear; speaking to different audiences (courtroom vs. client meeting vs. news media vs. job interview, etc.); handling question-and-answer sessions; and how lawyers can use public speaking to advance their careers. Prerequisites: LP I and LP II	Scaldo	August 9-12; M-TH 9:00am-12:00pm with a 15 break & 1:00- 4:20pm with a 15 minute break	August 13, Friday, 9- 11am	505
Taking and Defending Effective Depositions	FL-DSRL-311	1	TAKING AND DEFENDING EFFECTIVE DEPOSITIONS: The ability to take and defend depositions effectively, and to prepare clients and witnesses for deposition are critical, yet often overlooked skills essential to every advocate. Good depositions can make a case, while bad ones can blow it. This course will cover deposing experts, lay witnesses, and adverse parties; preparing witnesses and clients for depositions, defending depositions, problem depositions, using depositions at trial, strategies and tactics, special and ethical considerations. Prerequisites: Torts II, Contracts II, Property II, Criminal Law, LP II	Williams, A.	August 9-12, M-Th, 9- 12:15 (with 15 min. break).	August 13, Friday 9-10am	520
Tax Court and IRS Practice & Procedure	FL-TAXL-315N	1	TAX COURT AND IRS PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE: This one hour intersession course is designed to introduce you to the Internal Revenue Service, the issues your clients may encounter, and the internal workings of the agency. The IRS is a regimented agency that possesses quirks, some strengths and some weakness. We will learn how to read a Statutory Notice of Deficiency, how to protect your client's rights to go to the Tax Court (rather than to district court where the taxpayer has to pay the tax first, and litigate later), how to deal with the attorneys representing the IRS, how to teach your client about the examination process, and how to negotiate through the collection of the tax. The purpose of this course is to expose you to issues that will prevent terrible consequences if your client has to negotiate with the IRS. Prerequisites: First-year required courses. Recommended prerequisites: Administrative Law.	Boatwright	August 9-12; M-TH 6:00pm-9:00pm with a 5 minute break	August 13, Friday, 6-7pm	415
