"What Were They Thinking?" - A Proposed Approach To Harmless Error Analysis by Brent M. Craig, Assistant District Attorney for the Eighth Judicial Circuit of Alabama.

Mr. Craig discusses some of the issues with the courts' approach to applying the harmless error test by critically analyzing the Chapman and Harrington tests. Mr. Craig's proposed new approach includes extending the application of the Chapman test.

Theseus's Ship of State: Confederated Europa Between the Scylla of Mere Alliance and the Charybdis of Unitary Federalism by attorney Eric Engle.

Mr Engle analyzes the legal question of whether the European Union is state. Mr. Engle concludes that while under current legal principles the European Union is not a state, it is a state in the making.

"Let Them Do Drugs" - A Commentary on Random Efforts at Shot Blocking in the Sports Drug Game by Darryl C. Wilson, Professor of Law, Stetson University College of Law.

Professor Wilson discusses the legal implications of drug testing in professional and amateur sports and how the multiple current drug testing organizations can undermine athletes' rights. Professor Wilson also proposes a solution to dealing with performance enhancing drugs and other substances in professional and amateur sports.

Therapeutic Jurisprudence and Readiness for Rehabilitation by David B. Wexler, Professor of Law and Professor of Psychology, University of Arizona

Professor Wexler analyzes new effective approaches involving therapeutic jurisprudence in rehabilitating convicted criminals.

Diagonal Authority by Jacksonville attorney Michael Cavendish

Mr. Cavendish discusses the application of diagonal authority in Florida courts. Diagonal authority is an approach to applying case law in another jurisdiction in Florida as precedent when one jurisdiction has not ruled on a particular point of law.

If you have any questions or suggestions regarding the Florida Coastal Law Review, please contact Managing Editor, Kelley Jancaitis at kmjancaitis@fcsl.edu.