MAY 2009
Faculty Highlights

❖ Professor Cleveland Ferguson

Professor Cleveland Ferguson III was quoted in the Orlando Sentinel in Seminole Judge Candidate Gave Money to Campaign of Judicial Selection Committee Member, by Renee Stutzman, on May 12, 2009. He reviewed a legal and ethics matter involving the Judicial Nominating Commission for the 18th Circuit.

On May 17, 2009, Professor Ferguson participated in the Class of 2013 service academy incoming class ceremony at MacDill Air Force Base in Tampa, Florida. He was also recognized for his work on the Service Academy Nominations Board – Air Force Panel, by United States Senators Bill Nelson and Mel Martinez. Professor Ferguson has served on the regional and state panels since 2000.

On May 21, 2009, Professor Ferguson was named to Leadership Jacksonville’s Class of 2010.

❖ Professor Carolyn Herman

Carolyn Herman served on a panel at the 2009 Florida Bar's Entertainment, Arts & Sports Law Section's Annual Retreat Seminar titled "Representing the Multi-Faceted Talent; It's All About the Brand" held at the Amelia Island Plantation over Memorial Day Weekend. Her specific topic dealt with "Registering and Maintaining the Entertainer's Trademarks."

After a self-imposed year hiatus, Carolyn Herman was re-elected to the Executive Council of the Entertainment, Arts & Sports Law Section of the Florida Bar at its Annual Meeting.

❖ Professor Rick Karcher

Professor Rick Karcher participated on a legal ethics panel at the Sports Lawyers Association 35th Annual Conference in Chicago (May 14-16). Professor Karcher discussed regulation of agents in Europe, comparing the European model to the agent regulation system in the United States.
Professor Brad Shannon

Professor Shannon's article, "Overruled by Implication," has been accepted for publication by the Seattle University Law Review.