These building blocks come together in motion practice. This class will address the intricacies of motion practice and cover, among other issues, such matters as memoranda of law in support, reply and sur reply memoranda, the technical rules related to motions, oral argument, motion tactics and strategies, research issues related to motions, discovery motions, ethical issues, appellate court motion practice, and motions in class action litigation. Motions to dismiss, motions for summary judgment and motions in limine will also be addressed in a way that supplements and builds on concepts addressed in Civil Procedure and Pre-Trial Litigation Drafting. | Federal Sentencing | FL-DSRL-339 | 1 | FEDERAL SENTENCING: This course is designed to teach an overview of the federal sentencing process including an introduction to the Federal Sentencing Guidelines, as well as a discussion of the federal sentencing statute 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a). Following this overview, students would be given pre-sentence reports (PSR) (based on real cases) which contain all the information necessary to arrive at a lawful sentence. The PSR contains information about the crime itself, the characteristics of the defendant such as family background, education, employment, substance abuse, etc., the application of the Federal Sentencing Guidelines and other relevant information. We would then conduct mock sentencings at which students would marshal the information contained in the PSR to argue on behalf of either the government or the defendant for an appropriate sentence. Once the mock sentencing hearing was complete, the other students in the class would be asked to contribute their thoughts to the sentencing issues at hand. The course would end with a class-wide discussion of broader sentencing issues and the philosophy of sentencing. | Corrigan | May 19, 20, 21, 22 MTWR, 6:00pm-9:10pm with a 15-minute break | Friday, May 23, 6:00pm- 7:00pm | 505 |
