Florida Criminal Pre-Trial Practice	FL-CRIM-314	2	FLORIDA CRIMINAL PRE-TRIAL PRACTICE: The purpose of this course is to expose students to an aspect of Florida criminal practice that occupies most of the time of most criminal attorneys: pretrial practice. We will work through many of the major aspects of pretrial practice using the Florida Rules of Criminal Procedure, which may include case intake (witness interviewing, charging decisions), grand jury practice, indictments, arraignments, discovery, pretrial motions, pretrial detention hearings, and plea agreements. Immigration Considerations for the Criminal Defense Attorney		2	IMMIGRATION CONSIDERATIONS FOR THE CRIMINAL DEFENSE ATTORNEY: This class is designed to help a criminal attorney effectively defend his clients who happen to be aliens. Learn to identify how small nuances in pleas can make a huge difference as to whether the client faces future deportation because of the arcane and specialized language used in immigration law. Specifically:  1. ID the immigration category of the charged crime; 2. Spot potential adverse immigration consequences resulting from convictions and “no contest” pleas such as ineligibility for a future visa, “green card”, naturalization and deportation and removal. 3. Be prepared with solutions for your client by avoiding a conviction, making a plea that doesn't trigger immigration consequences, or how to ameliorate the consequences.
