

Course	Course Number	Credits	Description/Prerequisites	Professor	Meeting Times	Exam	Room Number
			August 3-14, 2020
Alternative Dispute Resolution	FL-DSRL-317	2	ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION: This course addresses non-litigation methods for resolving disputes in the context of a lawyer's obligations to serve clients with diligence. Legal theory and practical Simulation will be incorporated in studying mediation, arbitration and negotiation.	Reiber, J	August 3-13 -- 9:00am-12:15pm with a 15-minute break	Friday, August 14, 2020 from 9:00-11:00	DE
Advanced Legal Research and Writing	FL-LRWR-309	2	ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION: This course addresses non-litigation methods for resolving disputes in the context of a lawyer's obligations to serve clients with diligence. Legal theory and practical Simulation will be incorporated in studying mediation, arbitration and negotiation.	Coll, M.	August 3-13 -- 9:00am-12:15pm with a 15-minute break	Friday, August 14, 2020 from 9:00-11:00	DE
Genetics and the Law	FL-HLTH-600	2	GENETICS AND THE LAW: This course explores developments in genetics such as stem cell research and the Human Genome Project, and issues involving reproduction, access to health care, discrimination, privacy, forensics and gene therapy. A core theme of the course is examining the relationship between genetics developments and legal issues arising from those developments.	Williams, A.	August 3-13 -- 9:00am-12:15pm with a 15-minute break	Friday, August 14, 2020 from 9:00-11:00	DE